Drive On Pre-War Nazi Territory From East Starts

Unofficial Russian Sources Indicate Long-Delayed Smash Into Prussia Begun

SOVIET REPORTS RIGA CAPTURED

By NATALIA RENE
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Oct. 14.—The long-delayed drive on pre-war German territory from the east was reported underway today by unofficial Russian sources.

According to these sources, the drive is in their final "bloodless victory" before war broke out in September, 1939, and since then held by garrisons from East Prussia, is being carried out by large forces of Soviet troops.

Massed Soviet tank attacks on Miel, out-doubted Baltic port, and large-scale assaults across the Narva river in northern Poland on the lower side of East Prussia, are reported from a number of sources, including the Berlin radio.

Heavy fighting at Memel. The official Soviet communiqué was silent regarding the East Prussian offensive, but according to German radio broadcasts hand-to-hand fighting is in progress in Memel itself. In fact Wednesday's official German communiqué declared that the Memel garrison had destroyed 44 Red army tanks.

News of the threat to East Prussia followed capture of the port of Riga, Latvian capital and heavily fortified German naval base. This conquest released thousands of veterans.

PA NEWC Observes

Monday is the last day for mailing of holiday packages for men and women in service overseas, and indications are that there will be a busy day at the local post offices.

Don't fail to save paper for the next salvage drive in New Castle and suburbs. The date is Saturday, October 21.

Police are warning that they are hearing down on pre-halloween pranks around the city, especially those that are out of the limits of harmless fun.

Show fences are being moved to winter locations in larger numbers from day to day, along the highways, in preparation for the falling of snow in the not too distant future. The fences will be erected in November.

The raking of leaves is bound to be one of the major pursuits of local folks today. Last night's rain brought down the leaves in great quantities, Pa. Newc noted this morning. Incidentally, the rain, which fell around midnight, was most welcome, even though it fell too late to do gardens any good. Lawrence county farmers would welcome a whole week of rain, as the ground has become very dry.

Sgt. Roebuck Of Ellwood City Cited In Aachen

In his war dispatch from inside the city of Aachen, Germany, by Richard Tregaskis, International News Service war correspondent, today received by The News, the following story concerning Sgt. Walter Roebuck of Ellwood City was reported as a part of the information revealed by Tregaskis.

"I heard the so-called briefing of a handful of infantrymen in the tiled kitchen of a wrecked house before the jumpoff of an advance. Lieut. George Trazmitz of Blue Island commands one of the leading elements of this advance into Aachen and he said: 'Clean out those basements even if we have to use a lot of hermie grenades. Hold on and give civilians a chance to yell if they're down there. Then, if there's no answer, let the grenades go.'"

"The lieutenant referred to an incident yesterday. Roebuck of Ellwood City, Pa., and Lieut. Grover McIntosh of Smyrna, Ga., for their thoroughness in searching for finding and killing with their rifles a German beezooka crew."

Pound Dutch East Indies In New Air Raids

By FRANK ROBERTSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Oct. 14.—Continuation of the relentless pounding of Japanese bases in the Dutch East Indies and harassing attacks on Davao air-dromes, in the southern Philippines, by allied airmen was announced today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Flying over Mindanao, most southern island of the Philippines, patrol planes dropped explosives on the Davao fields, strafed the Tacloban drome, destroyed a small freighter, attacked another with machine guns and damaged two coastal ships.

Meantime, Mitchell bombers hit buildings on the Langoan airfield and demolished warehouses on the shores of Koendang bay.

Blitz Celebes. Liberators blasted the Ambessa airbase on Kendari on the southeast coast of Celebes, dropping 20 tons of bombs. One parked Japanese plane was destroyed and the airfield runways and taxi strips were torn up.

Fighter-bombers assailed air-dromes and enemy positions at Halmahera in the Moluccas, while fighter patrols visited Kay bay to strafe a lugger and a barge.

Despite unfavorable weather, attack bombers and fighter-bombers struck enemy dromes on Ambina, Boeroe and Ceram with 22 tons of Ceram-Burn coastal areas, destroying small craft and blasting shore installations.

Sweeping over the Banda sea and attacking the Kei Islands, fighter-bombers hit the Langgur dispersal areas. Patrols bombed targets in the Aru and Temburong groups.

Holland Faces Dark Situation

Netherlands Ambassador Says Nation To Be Without Food, Water Or Fuel Soon

GERMANS VENTING FURY ON NATION

By LEON PEARSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—A dark forecast that the major cities of Holland will be entirely without supplies of water, food and fuel before the end of this month was made today by Ambassador Alexander Louden of the Netherlands.

In an exclusive statement to International News Service, the ambassador said: "The situation in Holland is so desperate that it can hardly be exaggerated."

At the Netherlands embassy, late information was received today regarding the effect upon Holland of the furious battle now raging between Allies and German forces for control of the western defenses of the Reich. This information indicates that the Germans, having spared the underground of France and Belgium from the worst punishment, because of the necessary rapid withdrawal from those countries, are now taking it out on the Dutch.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will deliver his sharpest speech of the campaign at St. Louis Monday night, Republican leaders predicted today.

The GOP presidential nominee, it was indicated, will renew his onslaught upon the Roosevelt administration. He also may attack the alleged White House influence of the big Democratic city machines.

On several occasions, Governor Dewey has charged that the city bosses are a dominant influence in the present national administration. In St. Louis, it is reported, he will hammer at length upon that.

Resistance By Nazis In Italy Is Increasing

ROME, Oct. 14.—(INS)—The Allied onslaught aimed at a breakthrough of German defenses toward the northern Italian city of Bologna from the vicinity of Livorno, 10 miles distant, met increasing Nazi resistance today.

Despite the record-breaking air assault against Bologna and the approaches to the city by Allied aircraft in advance of the drive, the Fifth Army failed to gain any ground.

Nazi Field Marshal Gen. Albert Kesselring, concentrating fresh reserves for the defense of Bologna, lightened his forces on both the right and left flanks of the main Florence-Bologna highway.

The Fifth Army forces on these sectors immediately advanced, capturing Gasso on the right and Mount Dombiana on the left.

Unimportant Gains. These gains, headquarters said, were relatively unimportant since they are miles behind the spear-

Await Landing Of New Invasion Force In Greece

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

ROME, Oct. 14.—(INS)—Surrender of the last remaining troops of the German garrison on the Greek island of Corfu, was announced today while word of the promised landing of a formidable Allied invasion force on the Greek mainland was awaited.

While movements of the invasion force scheduled to hit the Greek mainland remained cloaked in secrecy, unconfirmed reports said that the capital of Athens already had been liberated from the Nazi yoke and that the port of Piraeus also had been freed.

No Germans were found in the City of Corfu itself but 60 discovered in the northeastern corner of the island promptly surrendered. No other groups are believed to exist on the island, except for small scattered bands of deserters.

Before the actual landings were made on Corfu, the RAF plastered the island with leaflets urging the enemy to surrender and issuing instructions on how to signify a desire to capitulate. Soon white crosses and flags blossomed all over the island low-flying pilots saw crowds waving cheerfully in the streets.

Yanks In Metz Sector Improve Their Position

By ERIC DOWNTON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

THIRD U. S. ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 14.—(INS)—In a series of important though unspectacular gains the Third Army has greatly improved its position between Metz and Nancy.

The dangerous bulge northeast of Nancy now has been eliminated, and as a result of the week's gains, Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton's forces hold commanding positions providing a good springboard for further advances when the time comes.

During the past 24 hours the American line has straightened between Parroy and Reichert, 20 miles east of Nancy.

Embermenil, 24 miles southeast of Nancy and two miles southeast of the battle-racked Forêt De Parroy, was entered by advance units of the Third Army.

German infantry is continuing to fight a losing battle in the thick woods in the northeast of the Forêt De Parroy, but the task of mopping up the forest is practically complete.

Counter-Attacks By Nazi Forces At Aachen Fail

Yanks Steadily Tighten Hold On Outlying Sections Of German City

NAZIS MOVING UP REINFORCEMENTS

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Oct. 14.—American Doughboys pressed forward down the streets of shell-pocked Aachen today in a grim house-to-house assault which observers predicted may be the opening phase of a major battle.

Repeated counter-attacks by enemy forces seeking to alleviate pressure on the ringed garrison city were beaten down by the Doughboys, who slowly but steadily tightened their hold on the outlying sections of the town.

Headquarters observers foresaw in the fighting a hint that the desperate Nazis may elect to wage a major battle in the region surrounding Aachen, throwing their available resources into the combat in an all-out attempt to stop the First Army's drive. These sources also predicted that the enemy will defend the remainder of the vital gateway to the industrial sectors of the Reich even if Aachen falls.

Nazis Rush Reinforcements. The Germans rushed up reinforcements to the Aachen front from the area of Nijmegen, Holland, in a desperate seventh hour effort to relieve the beleaguered garrison.

United States troops commanded by Lieut. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges continued to close in steadily on Aachen in support of the spearheads which already forced their way into the city from the southeast to blast the German hold-out garrison from strongpoints.

Headquarters said German counter-attacks north of Aachen, in the vicinity of Bardenberg and Vorsehn, were "very heavy."

Nearly 250 Delegates Attend Fall Sessions Of Beaver Valley Presbyterian

Fall Presbyterian of the Women's Missionary Society of U. P. Beaver Valley, Pennsylvania, was held Thursday, October 12, at Darlington U. P. church. Two hundred and thirty delegates registered at the morning session. For the afternoon session a large audience filled the church to capacity.

Morning session which opened at 9:30 o'clock with Mrs. L. C. Barnhart, presiding, was devoted to business, reports of the W.G.M.S. convention at New Concord, O., by Mrs. B. M. Wallace of Center U. P. church, and Mrs. Herbert Sturges of Camp Run U. P. church.

Noontime prayer which brought the session to a close was given by Mrs. G. D. Parker of Second U. P. church, New Castle. Mrs. W. K. Davis of Darlington led devotions. Highlight of the afternoon program was an address on "The Christian Way of Peace" by Dr. Mark Depp of Pittsburgh. Miss Mary Ewing, R.N., returned from Doleib Hill, Sudan, Egypt, was also a speaker on the afternoon program. Her theme was "Lifting the People of Egypt From the Ground Floor Physically and Spiritually".

Praise service was led by Mrs. Jesse Martsoff of New Brighton, closing prayer and benediction by Rev. Fred Houston.

Letters from missionaries, Miss Margaret Murdoch in Saragossa, India, and Miss Jeanette L. McCroft of Assut, Egypt, were read. It was decided that copies of letters from these missionaries will be sent to each of the member Presbyterian societies.

Announcement was made that next year's W.G.M.S. convention will be held at College Springs, Tarkio, Mo.

POLICE BAFFLED IN COAST MURDER

Georgette Bauerdorf, 20-year-old girl, who was criminally attacked and strangled to death in her luxurious Hollywood apartment. Her body, clad only in pajama top, was found Thursday morning lying face down in the bloody water of her overflowing bathtub. Her mysterious killer had strangled her to death by jamming a piece of towel down her throat.

Last Seen Dancing

The only clue pointed to a jilted soldier and came from Miss June Ziegler, close friend of the slain girl and fellow hostess with her at the Hollywood canteen. Miss Ziegler told investigators Wednesday night, the last night she saw Georgette alive, they were both dancing with servicemen at the canteen and that one soldier was continually "cutting in roughly" to force Miss Bauerdorf to jilt him.

"She didn't like him and resented his attitude but she told me she was dancing with him to avoid trouble," Miss Ziegler said. Police are continuing to rely on the assumption that this soldier or another may have snatched outside the canteen and then either carried or forced her to drive him to her apartment.

Her car, missing for more than 16 hours, was found 10 miles from her apartment with the keys still in the ignition.

The house still is standing in which President Madison and his family took refuge in Brookville, Md., when the British burned the city of Washington in 1814.

COUNTER-ATTACKS BY NAZI FORCES AT AACHEN FAIL

up reinforcement to Aachen from Nijmegen resulted in slackened pressure at the northern end of the British Second Army corridor through the Netherlands.

The German withdrawal from around Nijmegen to rush troops to the aid of Aachen resulted in a considerable movement of enemy forces which was observed by the Allies. An official spokesman said that the enemy shift of forces doubtless was made in an effort to relieve the American pressure on Aachen.

Counter Attack In Holland

Along the line south of Nijmegen to Aachen the German counter-attacks the Allied salient in Holland fiercely. British Second Army forces south of Overloon nevertheless advanced another 1,500 yards.

One counter-attack southeast of Heerlenbosch, at the northwest side of the salient was repulsed. The Germans also continued to counter-attack Allied forces on the Beveland peninsula.

While the American Third Army front in France remained comparatively quiet, French troops at the southern end of the western front began outflanking Le Thillot, near Belfort.

French First Army forces to the northeast of the village of Cominot surprised the Germans by their mobility across rough country and overran numerous Nazi strongpoints.

North of the Vosges foothills a German counter-attack near Bruey, due east of Epinal, was repulsed, largely through the efforts of a lone infantryman who fired a bazooka and knocked out one of the German lead tanks.

Adverse Weather

Third Army troops cleared the forest of Parroy and patrols reached Neuveville, on the southeast fringe.

Adverse weather confined action on the third front to local skirmishes.

South of Koenigsheid and Wurselen in the Aachen region the First Army units moved ahead slowly against tenacious opposition from mobile guns and tanks. In the Hurtgen forest outside of Germetere, where German counter-attacks earlier had shaken some ground, the doughboys again advanced, winning territory and mopping up pillboxes. Bridges at Mayen, west of Coblenz, and at Euskirchen, also were attacked.

Scalheads of the American assault forces smashed into Aachen from the southeast across the railroad tracks as converging pincer prongs narrowed the escape gap leading out of the city to a half-mile or less.

German mechanized forces brought up outside the city in an effort to relieve the beleaguered garrison suffered smashing defeats at the hands of the Yanks. Air forces contesting the enemy effort to support the garrison units smashed at German tanks east of Aachen, bringing the Nazi loss in two days to a total of 84.

The German armored force which bore the brunt of the relief effort was reported virtually wiped out.

Specific examples of brutal German reprisals were cited by Loudon. He named the villages of Pitten, near Appeldoorn; and Beck's, near Rotterdam, which have been burned down by the Germans in reprisal for the refusal of Dutchmen to dig German defense works.

Need For 10,000 Army Nurses Is Quite Desperate

Will Take More Than 10,000
If They Can Be Found
Says Directing Head

By JANE COCHRAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Ten thousand army nurses are needed "immediately, urgently and desperately," Lieut. Col. Bernice M. Wilbur, director of nursing service in the Mediterranean theatre, asserted today.

"And we'll take more than 10,000 if we can get them," she said. "The ceiling has been raised on the number of nurses needed from 40,000 to 50,000. We need the other 10,000 immediately if our wounded are not to suffer."

Col. Wilbur, 33, attractive and the veteran of 28 months overseas, said there are 30,000 nurses whom the War Manpower Commission has classified as available and there are at present 200,000 civilian nurses in the United States and 112,000 student nurses.

Makes Strong Plea

"I can't make my plea too strong to qualified women to enroll as army nurses," she said. "They can help prevent such situations as one I remember in Italy—four nurses did all the nursing for a 12-hour period for 35 non-transferable cases at a field clearing hospital and each one of the men was so critically wounded that he couldn't be moved back to the evacuation hospital."

They gave 104 intravenous infusions and blood transfusions to men so critical they would have had three nurses a day had they been in civilian life."

Col. Wilbur Outstanding

Col. Wilbur, who was awarded the legion of merit for her outstanding work in organizing the nursing service in her theatre, also supervises the work of 13 Nazi nurses and 36 German female attendants. They were captured in Italy and do the nursing in a prisoner of war hospital.

She narrowly escaped injury herself in southern France three weeks ago when a plane strafed the jeep in which she was riding.

Col. Wilbur went overseas first as a member of the American Red Cross Harvard Unit and became a member of the Army Nurse Corps after the United States entered the war.

She has risen in rank in two years from a Lieutenant to a Lieutenant Colonel.

Says President Reducing Weight

Has Been Developing Bulge Around
Waistline And Desired
To Reduce

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(INS)—President Roosevelt was pronounced in perfect health and "organically sound" Friday by his personal physician, Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire.

McIntire, who is surgeon general of the Navy as well as the President's physician, denied rumors that Mr. Roosevelt was suffering from poor health.

He termed such stories as "election time rumors."

"Such stories are not true," McIntire declared. "The President is organically sound and in good health. He is perfectly okay."

The Admiral said that Mr. Roosevelt's loss of weight, which has shown up in recent photographs, has resulted from the President's own wishes. The President a number of months ago, he said, was developing a bulge around his waist line and taking on more weight than he personally desired so that a reducing diet was prescribed in order to take it off.

As a result, the President has lost about 10 pounds, McIntire said. He said the President prefers to be between 175 and 178 pounds, which, he said, the President prefers to be the fact that photographs make him look quite thin in the face.

The physician said that Mr. Roosevelt is no longer on his diet, in fact hasn't been since before his trip to the Pacific early in July, and now eats whatever he wishes, but still desires to keep his weight down.

Admit Teamster's Union Members In Battle At Statler

By ARTHUR F. HERMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Sen. Theodore Green (D-R. I.) disclosed today that Daniel J. Tobin, president of the Teamsters Union, has admitted that members of his union fought two naval officers in the Statler Hotel the night of September 23 shortly after President Roosevelt concluded a political address.

This was the first admission on the part of the union leader that teamsters participated in the "battle of the Statler."

Sen. Green, chairman of the Senate campaign expending committee which is investigating the brawl said Tobin had supplied the committee with a number of affidavits from union members who took part in the fight or witnessed the brawl.

At a news conference Green said that he has obtained all of the names of teamsters involved in the fight. He said that "no one of them is a personal friend of the president."

U. S. Bazooka Teams Blast Nazis In Aachen

By RICHARD TREGASKIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

AACHEN, Germany, Oct. 14.—One thousand yards from this point in Aachen today I have been watching American infantry bazooka teams blasting through the wreckage of this German city.

It's 1 o'clock of a clear afternoon but this city is like a jungle.

Amidst the wreckage of the most thoroughly lambasted large city I ever have seen, American doughboys are battling their way from house to house, blowing up whole houses and whole blocks of the already bombed-out city when necessary to move down snipers.

An extremely small German force is fighting a determined man-by-man action.

Very few Germans have been encountered but the close nature of the fighting makes it necessary to comb every house and blast every window where a shot has been fired. It is reminiscent of the south Pacific jungle where it is difficult to spot the foe among the hundreds of trees and thick foliage.

The fighting here in bomb and shrapnel blasted Aachen with its rows of broken windows and houses makes those obstacles appear to correspond to the jungle trees. Heaps of bricks splintered lumber and broken masonry serve as underbrush for the defender.

City Warehouse In Philadelphia Burns

AACHEN BADLY RUINED

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—(INS)—Ned Calmer, a CBS correspondent, flew over Aachen today in an artillery spotting plane and reported that as far as he could see not a single building was intact.

"There was not a civilian in sight," he added, "and what troops remained were fighting indoors from scattered strong points."

This Week at JOHNSON SLEEVE BEARING REMOVED BRONZE

THANKS

It isn't very often that Johnson Bronze goes out to the public and asks a favor. But when we do it's usually an exceptionally good cause, and we usually get exceptionally good and speedy results. Last week we had a good example.

At the present time more than five hundred and seventy of our former employees have answered the call to the colors. Today's battlefields are scattered all over the globe and keeping an up-to-date mailing list of this entire group is a task indeed. Ours is an army and navy of motion and our fighting forces are constantly on the move. Consequently, we occasionally lose track of some of them.

This is the time of year when we pack and ship our annual Christmas box to every service man and woman. We didn't want to miss a single individual—so we asked the good people of our community to help us out. We needed the present addresses of one hundred and eight service men. Two weeks past we listed the names in the paper.

To date more than eighty people have taken the trouble to give us the correct information. For this we are extremely grateful.

It wasn't always the parents that helped us out. In many cases it was a friend or a relative. The replies came from all sections . . . New Wilmington, Wampum, Ellwood City, Oil City, Frankia, and many other surrounding towns.

By now most of the boxes have been shipped. They were destined for all sections of the world. Some will go to France and Germany. Some to England. Quite a few will end up in the South Pacific. Some go to India, to Africa, to Italy. A few go to Alaska and the Panama Canal district.

Securing the necessary contents and packing these boxes was quite a task. But it was a pleasant affair. We know that most of these boys will receive more than one box for Christmas. We realize that the families and the loved ones left at home will not forget them. But then there is a chance that one lonely GI might have been overlooked. Perhaps his folks . . . if he has any . . . might have intended to send him some holiday cheer—but forgot.

If we have filled this gap . . . If we, by our action, have stepped in and remembered one boy that otherwise would have been overlooked, then our efforts were well worth while.

This isn't going to be a very merry Christmas for these boys. It never is for anyone that is forced to spend it away from home. The only solution then is for us who are privileged to spend our holiday here to send some of our good fortune to them in foreign lands.

Some of these boys will spend their holiday in a fox hole. Some in a hospital . . . some at training centers. Perhaps these gifts will help them dream of—"a white Christmas" . . . at home.

Seventh Annual Series INFORMAL TALKS on COURTSHIP and MARRIAGE

Oct. 15—Who Is To Blame? . . . . . Are You?
Oct. 22—Let's Go Courting . . . . . Let's Be Sensible
Oct. 29—Marriage: Why? What? When? . . . . . Heaven or Hell
Nov. 5—Divorce: Why? What? When? . . . . . A Growing Evil
Nov. 12—The Curse of Adultery . . . . . Blighted Lives and Broken Hearts
Nov. 19—Family Trouble . . . . . Do You Have Any—Why?

The increased interest each year calls forth this seventh series of sermons on the problems relating to marriage and home life. In each sermon we will seek to hold forth the Christian solution to the problems involved.

In this series we seek to give instruction in the art of living together. We educate our youth for business and professional careers, yet in the all important realm of marriage and home life little is said or done in preparing our youth for this phase of life.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

edge. It has always been a mystery to anthropologists how, for instance, the Hawaiian Islands became populated, because those islands are cut off a long ways from the mainland. And yet, no doubt, with roughly constructed boats, long long ago, men from the mainlands discovered the Hawaiian group. And so with all of the islands that dot the oceans. The peoples in some of these islands have remained savages until either the English or the Japanese took them over.

The fiercest fights which man has ever waged against man, have occurred in family groups and the war between the British islanders and Europe and between the Japanese islanders and Asia are just another example of this fact. The British were the first to seek expansion and they have expanded so much that the rumbling drum beat and the bugle call of the British have been heard every hour of the twenty-four around the world. The Japanese conceived the same ambitions.

The struggles of these two island peoples to accomplish world-wide domination furnish a clue for the struggles of the warriors of today. And in order to preserve our own nations from being engulfed, our own individual nationality from being destroyed, it has become incumbent upon us and upon the people of Russia to join in the fight.

It is, however, interesting to observe to what extent the ambitions of the peoples of two small groups of islands in the world, have involved all the rest of humanity.

It might also be observed that since the fall of the Roman Empire there have been only two other peoples that have sought world domination—the Spaniards and the Germans.

Everybody, nowadays, is trying to use a proper diet. Every effort is made to make every cent count. Foods are prepared to yield the greatest supply of nourishment and vitamins.

Sometimes there may danger of being too economical. What is the use of a well balanced meal if it is not eaten?

Appetite and the pleasure of eating should be considered too. Rolled oats and milk provide a well balanced meal. It gets monotonous after awhile.

A horse can eat oats and hay every day. Who wants to be a horse?

Twice as Much as Before

Uncle Sam asks housewives to salvage at least twice the number of tin cans that are now being collected.

Used tin cans are vitally important in the production of three of our most urgently needed metals. They provide pure tin and large quantities of high-grade steel scrap. They are used to recover copper from mine waters.

Tin, high-grade steel scrap and copper are fighting metals. At least one is used in almost every war weapon and item of equipment at the front and behind the lines.

SEND YOUR USED TIN CANS TO WARI

Stay strong to keep working for Victory. Eat properly, bathe frequently, and drink large quantities of the pure, fresh water furnished by this business-managed company.

New Move To Save Paper Is Planned Here

Will you carry your packages home from the store unwrapped? Will you help in the paper conservation program? The two questions are synonymous and within a few days the merchants of the city will be asking you to aid in the answer.

As an aid to the paper conservation program and in co-operation with the War Production Board and other government agencies, the Paper Salvage committee of New Castle is asking the merchants of the city to declare a paper holiday, beginning Wednesday, October 19, for the duration of the paper shortage.

Save The Paper

The plan, known as the "Paper Plan," will be tried out here in an endeavor to aid in relieving the dire shortage of paper products. This does not mean that every article purchased will be sent out unwrapped. Unpacked foods, unpacked medicines, dry goods and yard goods which would be soiled without wrapping, underwear and intimate personal items, housewares, stationery and jewelry and silverware will require wrapping. But boxed foodstuffs, soap, shoes, and all articles which really do not need wrapping will be taken out of the store without a paper wrapping.

The need for paper grows daily. Saturday, October 21, the October Waste Paper drive will be held in New Castle and surrounding townships. If you have had any idea that previous paper collections were more or less unnecessary, forget them, for the Salvage committee here is beset with ideas from paper products mills for more paper to turn out cartons for the war effort.

Federal Aid For Universities Is Strongly Urged

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(INS)—Extension of federal aid to the nation's universities affected adversely by the war may be recommended to the house education committee by a group of leading educators. It was learned today.

Ending today, a three-day meeting was held in the capital by an advisory committee composed of a national cross section of university presidents to bring to the attention of congress the extent universities have been damaged by the war.

Phases of study undertaken by the educators to assist the house committee in recommending possible federal legislation included financial readjustments in 1944-45 necessary for continued operation.

Sgt. Henry Is Killed By Plane

Local Soldier Suffered Fatal Injuries When Struck By Propeller At Base In England

Sgt. Henry, of 419 1/2 Croton avenue, died as a result of injuries received when struck by the propeller of a plane at Kimbolton, England. The father was informed today in a letter received from Gen. J. A. Ulio, adjutant general of the U. S. Army.

The letter, dated October 12, was received by Mr. Henry this morning. The telegram announcing Sgt. Henry's death was received earlier in the week and failed to give any details. If more information is received, Mr. Henry will be informed at once. General Ulio's letter stated:

Sgt. Henry had written to his father on September 24, just four days before his death occurred, stating that he was in good health and it was felt that his death must have been sudden. He was a member of a ground crew of the Eighth Air Force, and had been overseas for about a year. He entered the service in June, 1942.

Sgt. Henry's mother passed away on January 28, 1927, and he had been raised by Mrs. Estella Scott, of this city. In addition to his father, John L. Henry, he is survived by his grandfather, Christopher Henry, of Ellwood City, and the following brothers and sisters: James L. and Mrs. Margaret Nail, New Castle; George K. Henry, of McKeesport; Pfc. Joseph P. Henry, now in New Guinea, and Pvt. Lawrence R. Henry, stationed in England. Lawrence and Donald had been making arrangements to have a reunion in England in the near future.

McCullough To Oppose Peterson

Benefit For Seibert Sunday
To Find Ace Pitchers
Occupying Mound

CAL HUBBARD TO UMPIRE ONE GAME

What appears to be the most interesting baseball twin bill of the fall of 1944 is scheduled to start at one o'clock Sunday at Marshall field when the Johnson Bronzes plays the I.A.M. in the first of three games series for the City Circuit championship and the Loyal Order of Moose, third place City Circuit plays the Fast Night Turn team of the I.A.M.

To make the bill more inviting, Cal Hubbard, American loop umpire and also a famous football player and coach will umpire one of the games. The games will be a benefit for Pat Seibert, I.A.M. Night Turn player injured in June. The Bronze and I.A.M. meet in the last half of the bill.

One of the other features will be the pitching battle between Sid Peterson of the Bronze and Paul McCullough. Peterson has been a consistent winner for the Johnson Bronzes. McCullough got into the fight in the second half of the I.A.M. Peterson pitched in the American Association, likewise Paul. The latter when with Toledo, where Sid also twirled, had a chance to go with the Giants who offered Roger Bresnahan, then manager, $30,000 for McCullough, but Bresnahan held onto the former Edgemoor pitcher.

There are also stars in Sunday's City league set to between the Bronze and the I.A.M. while Fitz Rodenbaugh, manager of the Moose who staged several memorable struggles with the Johnson Bronzes this season, has promised to put his fastest team in the field. The Night Turn of the I.A.M. has a good team and while this game in a way may rank second to the City loop teams struggle the fact remains that it may not when the ninth inning is over.

Pat Seibert, formerly pitched for the Butler Yankees and was injured when he attempted to slide into a base on the E. & A. field. That was in June. His injury consisted of a fracture of the leg. Since then he has not been able to resume his plant duties and his fellow workers decided to do something about it. The something took the form of a benefit. The committee named to handle the affair consists of Aron Arnold, John Stepp, Art Daglish, M. J. Donovan of the City league and Mayor John P. Haven.

No doubt there'll be a crowd of several thousand at the game. Tickets can be procured at the Sporting Goods store, Love & McGowan's drug store and from members of the I.A.M.

Convicted Italian Banker Sentenced

Former Governor Of Bank Of Italy
Given 30-Year Prison Term
For Collaboration

ROME, Oct. 14. (INS)—Vincenzo Azzolini, former governor of the Bank of Italy, received a 30-year sentence today following a trial on charges that he handed over millions in gold reserves to the Germans.

The state had asked the death penalty.

Azzolini stoutly maintained that he gave the gold to the Germans only after consultation with other bank officials, and evidence was introduced to show that he had backed the Italian underground.

Incriminating documents produced by the prosecution indicated that Azzolini had sent the gold to the Italian-German frontier of his own volition. Various payments he made to Mussolini also were questioned.

Service Champ

A COOK in the U. S. Marine Corps stationed in the South Pacific, Cpl. Tommy Padilla, Jr., now reigns as the welterweight champion of the Marines in the South Pacific. Padilla's home is located at Albug, N. M. (International)

FOR a long time hereabout baseball folk have been inclined to the belief that, like good wine, Paul McCullough improves with age. Tomorrow he is slated to pitch for the International Association of Machinists series for the City Baseball League title. It will be the last half of a tidy sum for Pat Seibert, I. A. M. night turn player who broke a leg in June and who since has been unable to work. The other game will find the night turn I. A. M. vs. the Loyal Order of Moose. One of the features will be that Cal Hubbard, American League umpire, will be one of the arbiters in one of the games.

McCullough would love nothing better than to turn in a victory over Sid who has been a consistent winner for the Bronze this season. Both have had their whirled in the American Association and for a time McCullough was with the Washington Senators. Due to a combination of circumstances Paul got out of the Big Show and O. B. and for years has proved a star on sandlots in Youngstown and New Castle. While with Toledo, the late John McGraw offered the late Roger Bresnahan $30,000 (and that wasn't hay) for McCullough but the Rajah wanted more and as a result said Paul didn't get a chance to ever enjoy the good will or receive the displeasure of McGraw.

He has made it known, and also has Sid, that they are going to Marshall field Sunday afternoon, fired with a determination to pitch the battle of their careers. There's no denying they know what it is to be able to coast along, and what to do in a tight place. Both have plenty of heart, baseball brains and flinging arms in good condition because of regular work during the last half of the City League season. Who wins the first game will be favorites to capture the pennant. Cal Hubbard who one of the games tomorrow. As a grider he was one of Bo McMillin's best linemen at Geneva, played with several top ranking pro' teams and coached.

Less Horvath, Ohio State's spectacular ball carrier, is a senior in the dental shop. When not busy on the grid or in the schoolroom he's filling teeth. . . . Army has romped by big scores over their first two opponents. A trio of their ball carriers who may help Army have one of its best teams are Tom Lombardo, Doug Kenna and Glenn Davis. . . .

Lawrence County is in the federal intermediate and also the western Pennsylvania western zones, thus it behooves duck hunters to study carefully the time when to and when not to shoot. The opening minute today season opens one minute later. For instance, it opens October 15 at 7 a. m. and October 16 at 7:01 a. m. and continues that way for the rest of the month. However, watch November 1. Duck hunters cannot shoot before the small game hunters start banging away. The time is 9 a. m. with the closing hour 6 p. m. Relative to the duck hunters "stop shooting" time, October 15 calls for 6:40 and October 16, 6:38 p. m. From then on the time keeps dropping until it calls for 6:18 p. m. on October 31.

13-Year Wait For Victory Ends On Friday Thirteenth

Friday the 13th had a very significant meaning to Hank Day, veteran coach of the Farrell High "Night Riders" and formerly head coach at Washington High. Day has been at Farrell for the past three years as head coach.

It was just 13 years ago in 1931 that Coach Day watched his Little Presidents defeat New Castle and Phil Bridenbaugh by a score of 27 to 0. Last night for the first time over that span of years Coach Day watched eagerly, hopefully as his Farrell team clinging to a 14 to 7 lead to the finish. Who said 13 was a lucky number?

Farrell's Wait For Win Over New Castle Finally Ends Friday Night

Jimmy Smith, Colored Half-back Sparks Farrell, Jackson Scores On Pass

Farrell high school's "Night Riders" football team waited ten years and finally defeated New Castle High "Red Hurricane" last night at Taggart stadium before a crowd of perhaps 7,000 fans by a score of 14 to 7. It was simply a case of too much jumpback who sparked both of Farrell's touchdown marches.

Farrell followed the pattern of every other team to oppose New Castle lately, and tallied in the first few minutes of play, putting New Castle on the defensive and it was an uphill fight for the Bridenbaugh team the entire way.

New Castle fought back with everything they had in the final two periods and got over a touchdown and but for a bad pass from center after reaching the nine-yard line in the closing moments of the game might have tallied again and tied the count, but this is only supposition and they don't win them that way.

In first downs Farrell had 14 and New Castle had six and that just about tells the story. Farrell gained 217 net yards by rushing to 39 net yards for New Castle. New Castle didn't have the ball much of the time, but when they did they looked good in pots.

Farrell took the opening kickoff from Jackson on their own 38-yard line and marched straight down the field for a total of 62 yards and Smith lugged the ball over from the 2-yard line. In this drive Farrell hung up five first downs and Smith did the biggest part of the ball lugging. Checks made the extra point following the touchdown by Smith and it was 7 to 0 in favor of the visitors. Farrell gained the ball on a kick from Andrews near the end of the first period.

Farrell found the going pretty tough and Drill kicked to Andrews on the New Castle 48 as the first period closed.

Fumble Proves Costly

On the first play of the second period Flora fumbled and it was recovered by Farrell on the Farrell 48-yard line. Farrell began another touchdown march at this point with Smith spearheading the attack. Reaching the New Castle 10-yard line Smith faded back and flipped a pass to Drill, the right end, and he reached the ball over for the second and final Farrell touchdown. It was a 52-yard advance after recovering the New Castle fumble. Checks kicked the extra point to make it 14 to 0.

Toward the close of the second period Farrell took the ball on a kick from Andrews and had the ball on the Farrell 24 when a fumble was recovered by Purrst and New Castle was in scoring position but time was running out. A pass thrown by Andrews was grabbed by Smith of Farrell on the Farrell 9-yard line as the first half ended. Andrews tried hard to connect with a pass in the dying moments of the half but Farrell was alert and knocked them down.

Snappy Bands Vie For Honors Between Halves Of Contest

Farrell And New Castle High Bands Present Colorful Drills During Football Game

Farrell high school brought one of the snappiest school bands seen here in many a day to the grid contest at Taggart stadium last evening, and they took the field in evening, presenting a snappy drill and serenading both New Castle and Farrell stands with school songs.

The Farrell band, which had around 80 pieces, had left the local band strutted stuff, with the baton twirlers helping to relieve the tension of the crowd which was keyed up fever pitch over the rough close contest.

The contest is open to all members, both men and boys, and also includes any service men that come into the local association. A contest trophy will be awarded to the association which compiles the highest map mileage. For those that swim a mile a day for 10 or 12 days individually embossed pocket certificates will be awarded.

Any swimmer can swim as many lengths or yards as he desires. If he desires to swim a mile a day he can do so by swimming so many yards and then resting. In this way he can pile up quite a few yards and can also swim a mile a day. In other words it is not necessary to swim the whole mile through. No swimmer can swim more than 2 miles a day in the contest.

The local association has quite a few distant swimmers and will have a 10-mile club during the contest. All those that expect to enter the contest are urged to come in to the "Y" and register as soon as possible. The New Castle "Y" wants to make a good showing in the contest and would like the "Y" swimmers to participate and help make a good showing.

Swim Contest Starts Monday At Pool At 'Y'

On Monday, October 16, the members of the local YMCA will start to swim in the national YMCA swim contest down the Mississippi. The long swim will end on October 23.

There are 56 YMCA associations from coast to coast, including five Pennsylvania associations entered in the contest.

With the selection of Tom Jones to head the local association's contest swimmers a good showing is expected. Harold Pears will handle the junior swimmers and expects every member of the boy's department that can swim the length of the pool to enter the contest.

A daily record will be kept for those that swim and in this way each contestant will know exactly how far they have gone down the Mississippi.

The contest is open to all members, both men and boys, and also includes any service men that come into the local association.

A contest trophy will be awarded to the association which compiles the highest map mileage. For those that swim a mile a day for 10 or 12 days individually embossed pocket certificates will be awarded.

Inaugural Plans Under Way Already

Ceremonies Will Probably Be Held In Front Of Capitol Where 100,000 Can Watch

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(INS)—The presidential election is still almost a month away, but already plans are beginning to shape up for the inauguration of the nation's next chief executive January 20.

David Lynn, architect of the Capitol, disclosed Friday that he hoped to enter within a few days over the inaugural day program with Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D. Va.), chairman of this congressional inaugural committee.

"I have several plans in mind for the inauguration," said Lynn, "but their adoption is contingent on the committee's desires."

Lynn said the committee—composed of three senators and three representatives—would decide whether to hold the inaugural outside the Capitol or in the House or Senate chambers.

There have been reports that the ceremony may be held indoors in the event of inclement weather, making it possible for only a comparatively few to witness the colorful rites.

It was expected, however, that the ceremony would again take place in front of the Capitol, where 100,000 people can be accommodated, unless the weather turns especially bad.

Congress appropriated $25,000 for the expenses of the inaugural ceremony, $10,000 less than had formerly been voted. Lynn commented, however, that "if more money is needed, I presume it will be forthcoming."

Fellow Airman Praises Gabreski

'Just Doesn't Make Mistakes,' Captain Says About Captured Flying Ace

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 14.—Lt. Col. Francis Gabreski, top-ranking airman from Oil City, Pa., stacked up his record of 28 downed German planes and three destroyed on the ground because "he just doesn't make mistakes in the air."

This opinion of Col. Gabreski's air-prowess was given recently by Capt. Robert J. Rankin, a P-47 pilot who has flown a number of missions as the Pennsylvania's wingman.

Col. Gabreski, a squadron commander, is now a prisoner of war of the Germans.

"But that was the result of a strafing mission," Capt. Rankin pointed out at the Army's Atlantic City redistribution station.

"Any pilot, no matter how good, can be knocked down while he's strafing. That's the roughest deal in combat."

Capt. Rankin credits the combination of "good pilot and good plane" for Gabreski's record.

"And he was plenty eager," he continued, "I don't mean that he was too cocky. But he wasn't backward, either. And he had lots of experience. He didn't make the mistakes a newcomer might fall into."

Rankin, an ace in his own right, is credited with 75 missions, ten downed German planes, one probable, and four damaged.

State Convention

Condemns New

Deal Legislation

READING, Pa., Oct. 14.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association today condemned "New Deal legislation which threatens the financial resources of churches, charities and educational institutions."

The association adopted unanimously a resolution calling upon President Roosevelt and Congress to amend the income tax law governing incomes of $5000 or less to permit a 15 per cent deduction for gifts to charitable institutions at its closing session yesterday.

When the Lions club meets for its regular luncheon session Tuesday noon we will have a local educational problem. Earl M. Cass, vocational director of the New Castle schools, will be the speaker. He will talk on the subject "What vocational industrial education is and what the schools of New Castle are doing about it." Be sure to be present and keep up our good attendance record.
